

PQA Review Panel
Participation Agreement

You have been invited by PQA to participate on a PQA Review Panel to review proposals for the following PQA project: [insert]. This project: [insert].

If you decide to participate in this Review Panel, you will be expected to review proposals and attend conference calls and in-person meetings (if necessary) to discuss and deliberate about proposals.

As part of your role as a Reviewer, you may obtain access to “confidential information.” This confidential information includes, but is not limited to, information designated as confidential in the proposals, the discussion surrounding deliberations by other Reviewers, the identify of organization(s) that are selected prior to PQA’s official announcement of the organization(s) selection, and the identity of organizations that are not selected.

You agree that you will hold all “confidential information” received during the course of your participation as a Reviewer in strict confidence. You will not disclose, or cause or permit disclosure by yourself or any other person, any confidential information to any person or entity without PQA’s prior written consent. You will not use such information to your own financial benefit.

PQA reserves the right to terminate this Participation Agreement.

I agree to be bound by the terms of this Agreement.
